

FINAL DETAILS ARRANGED FOR MAY 30 EVENTS

Final plans for the annual Memorial Day observance Saturday were outlined at a meeting of the local committee held Thursday evening at the GAR rooms on E. Middle St.

Organizations participating in the parade are to form on Springs Ave. at 1:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with the parade to move at 2:15 p.m. The cemetery exercises will start at 2:45 o'clock.

VFW Commander Bernard E. Murray and VFW Memorial Day Committee Chairman Francis Wisotzky were named to meet the speaker, Congressman James E. Van Zandt, and party at the airport.

David Oyler, chairman of the committee to secure cars for the service, will have two cars available for the Van Zandt party at the airport. The cars will be accompanied by state police.

Short On Funds

Cars will also be provided for the United Spanish War Veterans and Auxiliary with the cars to be at the VFW at 1 o'clock to pick up Spanish War veterans and auxiliary members who report there and then go to the home of C. T. Zeigler, Springs Ave., to get members reporting there.

The report of Treasurer Jesse E. Snyder indicated slightly more than $200 had been secured by the committee in its finance drive so far. Approximately $300 is needed to take care of expenses in connection with the Memorial Day program.

Marshal LeRoy H. Winebrenner reported 12 new banners have been received by the borough for street decorations and were placed across the streets in the Lincoln Square area. With the new banners the town has been able to extend its decorations over the route of the parade on Baltimore St., he said.

Arthur Warman was added as an aide for the first division, with Walter Doud to serve as an aide in the second division of the parade.

WILL INCREASE FACILITIES AT COUNTY PLANT

Despite predictions of a less than normal crop of Montmorency sour cherries, the favorite processing cherry, The C. H. Musselman Company is making 20 per cent increase in its receiving capacity at the Biglerville plant and is installing, for the first time, complete receiving and processing equipment at the Inwood plant in West Virginia.

At Biglerville new tanks and receiving dock procedure will make for added convenience to growers delivering direct to Biglerville. Don Horst, crop supervisor of the company, points out that "despite excessive moisture and poor pollination weather, plus the effects of late freeze, the cherry crop in the area normally delivering to the plant may have a considerable tonnage. The moisture will result in larger cherries."

Offers New Market

At Inwood the new facilities at Inwood will be the addition of up to 100 seasonal workers in the plant there, which already gives employment to many in the long processing season for apples. The figure will depend on the number of shifts worked, which in return will depend on the crop and cherries received.

HERE ON VACATION

Miss Doris M. Taughinbaugh, Los Angeles, Calif., is spending a vacation with her parents, County Commissioner and Mrs. G. Ed Taughinbaugh, Hunterstown. Miss Taughinbaugh, a former Bank of America employee now with the accounting department of the Richfield Oil Co., flew to Harrisburg, and will return by air to California June 7 at the end of her vacation period. To Get Long-delayed Medal On Sunday

A Purple Heart decoration awarded to Willis Lawver, a veteran of World War I, formerly of Arendtsville, who has never been home since his return to the United States following the cessation of hostilities in that conflict, will be presented to him at ceremonies in the Coatesville Veterans Hospital Sunday.

The Purple Heart was awarded to Mr. Lawver but, upon review of his military records it was found that it had never been presented, according to Dr. Hugo Mella, manager of the hospital, who is arranging the Sunday ceremonies.

Mr. Lawver is a son of the late David and Emma (Porsythe) Lawver. Living brothers and sisters include Charles Lawver, Carlisle; Hersh Lawver, Gettysburg; Boyd Lawver, Biglerville R. 2, and Mrs. Alice Schlosser, Shepherdstown, Pa. There are also a number of nephews and nieces. Many of the family will attend the ceremonies at Coatesville.

The formal presentation of the award will take place in the recreation hall at the hospital at 2 p.m. Representatives of the Army, Navy and Air Force will participate in the ceremony.

PRISONER IS REFUSED PLEA FOR RELEASE

An opinion dismissing the petition of Curtis McCurdy, near Zora, for release from Eastern Penitentiary on a habeas corpus proceeding, was handed down by the Adams County Court this morning.

McCurdy had argued he was "illegally detained" in the prison, on a sentence on a morals charge, on the grounds he was "convicted on perjured testimony, evidence produced at the trial was hearsay and not sufficient to convict," and "that lack of notes of testimony being transcribed constitutes denial of petitioner's right to appeal."

Appeal Period Lapsed

The court held that "courts are directed to provide an official stenographer whenever requested to do so by the defendant but that no request had been made at the trial; that McCurdy took no action on an appeal until the time for appeals had lapsed; that the question of sufficiency and character of the evidence cannot be raised in a habeas corpus proceeding, and that the petition does not state what testimony was allegedly perjured, to grant a writ of habeas corpus would in effect do nothing more than permit McCurdy to retry the case determined at the original trial on the same evidence then presented to and passed upon by the jury. At every trial the credibility of all witnesses called is at issue and must be passed upon by the jury."

The court in dismissing the petition gave McCurdy an opportunity to file an amended petition within 30 days if he so wishes "setting forth what testimony he contends was perjured and setting forth clearly the proof of such falsity and the fact that the proof was discovered after the trial."

POLICE SEIZE MORE MACHINES

Four more pinball machines were seized by state police of the Gettysburg substation, all of them at Littlestown, Thursday afternoon, and proprietors of the places where they were found charged with setting up and maintaining gambling devices.

State police listed the places and proprietors where the pinball machines were seized as the Littlestown Newsstand, 44 S. Queen St., Monroe Morelock, Littlestown, proprietor, and the Texas Lunch, next door at 46 S. Queen St., Bernard Wolf, Hanover, proprietor. Three machines were seized in the Littlestown Newsstand and one in the Texas Lunch, police said.

Morelock and Wolf were arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore on the gambling charges and released in $500 bail each for preliminary hearings on June 8. The pinball machines were taken to the Adams County Jail for safekeeping.

Several other pinball machines were seized at McSherrystown recently and proprietors of the places where they were found charged with maintaining gambling devices. These cases are also pending.

A divorce was granted by the Adams County court to Clarence R. Hartlaub, Gettysburg, from M. Gladys (Whistler) Hartlaub, Gettysburg R. D., after handing down an opinion dismissing the defendant's exceptions to the master's report.

Mrs. Hartlaub had attacked the master's acceptance of the report of her husband and three detectives concerning her alleged infidelities.

Bonds were approved for the following tax collectors: Joseph Gocheneau, Menallen Twp.; Helen A. Sanders, Mt. Pleasant Twp.; A. D. Sheely, Arendtsville, and John R. Reaves Jr., Freedom Twp.

The backlog of 26 adoption applications piled up by the Adams County Child Welfare Services will get the attention this summer of a new member of the staff, Mrs. Jaan Jurisson of Cashtown, who will begin a three-month period of service on June 1.

A talk by Mrs. Eugene R. Hartman, new secretary of the Gettysburg Parent-Teacher Association, and demonstrations of daily classroom activities by pupils of kindergartens conducted by Miss Margaret Howard and Mrs. Frederick Tilberg featured Thursday night's meeting of the PTA in the band room at Gettysburg High School.

President John C. Stahle opened the meeting and turned it over to Major Floyd McKeand, chairman of the program committee, who introduced Mrs. Hartman. The latter spoke on the preparation of children for the first grade, stressing the need for physical examinations, vaccination, and tests of sight and hearing before a child enters school.

The speaker also told of many ways in which the child could be prepared for entering first grade, both at home and in kindergarten school. The latter, she said, accustoms children to associating with other youngsters.

The little tots of both Miss Howard's and Mrs. Tilberg's schools showed how they sang their morning songs, saluted the flag with the pledge of allegiance, prayed and recited the poems they learned. Mrs. Tilberg was assisted by Mrs. Paul Ecker. Mrs. Tilberg's kindergarten youngsters also gave a demonstration of a rhythm band.

Following the program, Mr. Stahle presided at a business meeting at which the new officers were installed. They were presented by Mrs. John S. Stand-In Takes Queen's Place At Last Rehearsal

LONDON (AP)—The final full-dress rehearsal of the coronation went off without a hitch today—and Queen Elizabeth II knows her part so well she left it up to a stand-in to play her role.

Crowds outside Westminster Abbey got a good preview of the rich pageantry surrounding next Tuesday big show—though the trial run was behind closed doors.

More than 1,200 persons took part in the 2½ hour practice, carried out with all the trappings and dress with full of the Duke of Edinburgh in the procession, collapsed during the ceremony.

He was carried from the Abbey on a stretcher.

Crowd Is Disappointed

Queen Elizabeth was busy with affairs of state at Buckingham Palace during the rehearsal. For her it was just another royal work day, as she received the new Haitian ambassador. The Queen's failure to show up at the Abbey was somewhat disappointing to the crowd—but they got a good run for their waiting anyway.

They saw old England on parade—ceremonial uniforms and splashes of scarlet and gold as an indication of the splendor to come next Tuesday.

There was an ever-heightening air of expectancy throughout the jam-packed, gaily decorated metropolises.

The increasing breathlessness of the coronation atmosphere was pointed up by a front page banner headline in the Morning News Chronicle. It said merely: "The Queen Looks Radiant"—to Britons, that was the NEWS OF THE DAY.

Elks Dance Will Honor Marchers

A graduate of Gettysburg College, class of 1910, Dr. Baughman went to the Gettysburg Seminary and began his active work in the ministry in 1913.

His first pastorate was in Keyser, West Va., where he served until 1918. He then went to St. Stephen's Church, Pittsburgh, from 1918 to 1925 and Trinity Church, Germantown, from 1925 to 1941.

In 1941, Dr. Baughman became a professor at the local seminary and assumed the presidency of the institution on October 4, 1951. In 1951, he was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Gettysburg College.

Dr. Earl J. McGrath, former United States commissioner of education, will be the commendatory speaker. The exercises will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The graduate school was founded in 1935 to provide an opportunity to experienced bankers for advanced study in banking and related subjects. The faculty for the 1953 session comprises 67 regular members and 28 special lecturers, including bankers, lawyers, educators and government representatives. Four major subjects are offered by the school, commercial banking, trusts, investments and savings management. Mr. Fox will major in trusts.

To qualify for graduating, Mr. Fox must attend similar summer sessions again in 1954 and 1955. In addition, he must complete two years of extension work at home and will be required to write a thesis based upon original research in some phase of finance.

Mr. Fox has been associated with the First National Bank of Gettysburg since 1938.

RECEIVE BUS PETITION

President Oren H. Wilson presided at the meeting and presented a petition from a group of residents who live along the road between Hunterstown and Granite Station asking that a school bus be routed across that road. More than 20 children live along that route now and have to walk or be hauled either to Hunterstown or the Lincoln Highway to meet a school bus, the petition said.

The board previously had turned down a similar request because of the railroad grade crossing at Granite with a "blind" approach from the north. Thursday evening it was decided to consider the new route when bus routes are re-checked later in the summer but directors insisted that, if a bus route is established there, the bus always travel from the Lincoln Highway toward Hunterstown.

The directors will meet again in June on a date not yet set to go over tax exoneration lists and elect a secretary for four years and a treasurer.

STRABAN TWP. SCHOOL TAX IS SAME AS 1952

The Straban Twp. School Board Thursday evening continued the 20-mill levy on real estate and a $10 per capita tax for another year.

The directors, meeting at the home of Ralph W. Guise, Lincolnway East, adopted the tax rate for this year in connection with the approval of a $95,000 budget.

The directors made provision for Straban to pay its share of the first-year rental on the proposed addition to the high school building and the new grade school building to be erected here. The township board used figures given them at the last Gettysburg Joint Board meeting when the township's share of the first year financing of a $1,500,000 bond issue for the two new buildings was calculated.

Although final figures on the balance the district will have in the bank at the end of the current school year are not yet available, the directors said they do not believe a tax increase, which it had feared might be necessary to meet the new building costs, will have to be imposed this year to keep the district "out of the red."

"It is frequently noted that parochial schools have more definite ideas on the subject of authority than are normally found elsewhere, and in fact, those who do not agree with our philosophy often refer to us as 'authoritarianism.'" The Rev. Fr. Robert J. Maher, president of the Catholic Educational Association of Pennsylvania, and superintendent of schools of the Harrisburg Diocese, declared in a commencement address at Delone High School, McSherrystown, Thursday night.

"However, the more we look about us, the more we wear this epithet as a badge of honor," he continued. "If accepting God as a personal Deity is authoritarianism, we are for it. If teaching the absolute value of truth and the absolute value of goodness is authoritarianism, we are for it. If teaching that man and his destiny with God is the central objective of education and not the progress of the democratic state is authoritarianism, we are for it."

"Opinions to the contrary notwithstanding, we are free in our classrooms with the freedom of the children of God. He has given us the power of choice, although our minds are clouded and our wills weak. Through the cultivation of our moral and intellectual powers, we can share in the Divine source

Rosenbergs Die Week Of June 15

NEW YORK (AP)—Condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg were sentenced today to die in the Sing Sing Prison electric chair the week of June 15.

This was the fourth time that Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman had set the execution date amid a maze of legal defense maneuvers which are still continuing.

Defense counsel unsuccessfully sought to have Judge Kaufman postpone the setting of the date until next Monday.

The Rosenbergs were accused of conspiracy to pass atom bomb secrets to Soviet Russia. They are in the Sing Sing death house.

Their attorney, Emanuel H. Bloch, was not in court today. His father, Alexander Bloch, also an attorney, represented the condemned couple.

Federal attorneys firmly opposed the defense move to delay setting of a date.

New Security Program Puts Responsibility On Head Of Each Government Agency

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's new security program went into effect Wednesday and Atty. Gen. Brownell, who drew it up, is so confident about it he has predicted all security risks will be out of government by autumn.

In his April 27 order setting up this program Eisenhower explained its purpose: to see that all government employees shall be "reliable, trustworthy, of good conduct and character, and of complete loyalty to the United States."

This covers wide ground. And Eisenhower has given all agency heads, each of whom must establish the program in his own shop, broad authority to decide the standards by which employees will be judged.

Because of this, the new program may be a little tougher on individual employees than the old loyalty-security program of former President Truman. From the way it's set up it should work faster than the Truman program.

Keep Constant Check

Eisenhower has instructed the Civil Service Commission to keep a constant check to see that the program is working well and at the same time is fair.

Truman's program was really two programs: one covered employees of questionable loyalty; the other handled security risks—employees who might be completely loyal but might jeopardize national security because, for instance, they held a sensitive job but drank or talked too much or had some other shortcoming.

Eisenhower has lumped both programs under one. He has also widened it. Whereas employees formerly could be considered security risks in only about 10 agencies, like the Defense Department or the Atomic Energy Commission, the new program covers all employees in all agencies.

Under the Truman loyalty program an accused man got a hearing before a board made up of officials within his own agency. If it decided his loyalty was questionable, the agency head then upheld the board and fired him or overruled the board and kept him.

Abolish Old Board

If fired by the agency head, the accused employee had one further appeal: to the loyalty review board made up of prominent citizens chosen by the President, and not connected with any agency.

The Eisenhower program completely abolishes this board. (It will stay on a few months to clean up unfinished business but will handle no new cases.) Hereafter the agency head will be the final authority. This is the procedure:

An accused man gets a hearing before a board within his own agency. (Unlike the Truman program, where this board might be made up of the accused man's friends from within his own agency, from now on the board members will be government employees from other agencies and more probably strangers to him.)

No matter what conclusion the board reaches, the agency head can make the final decision on whether the accused man stays or goes.

Under the new program, as under the old, a man fired on loyalty grounds can hold no other government job.

"COMICS"

When I buy the daily paper . . . to delve into what is new . . . invariably a special page . . . always comes to view . . . I'm speaking of the comic strips . . . where fun and laughter dwell . . . and when it comes to spreading joy . . . they have no parallel . . . they carry good philosophy . . . that fortifies my life . . . and chuckles that I gain from them . . . help me to weather strife . . . some are about adventure . . . others deal in make-believe . . . while some depict a mystery . . . that I long to perceive . . . from childhood into manhood . . . I've been a reader of . . . the comics that are part of news . . . I've really grown to love . . . and I suppose as long as I . . . will buy a sheet of news . . . I'll delve into the comic page . . . to drive away my blues.

offer and thwart the wishes of the independent district," and that "the school directors of the proposed independent school district would be appointed by the court and it is impossible to predict their attitude toward or action on the question of affiliating with other districts."

Haas also held that "no assurances can be given that the members of the independent district, if created, would vote to accept the terms of a joint board agreement."

Haas concluded, "In the absence of any guarantee that the independent district, if created, might become part of an administrative unit capable of maintaining an efficient system of public schools, it appears that to approve the creation of the proposed district might aggravate, rather than solve, the problem confronting the petitioners."

Suggests A Plan

The state superintendent concluded by stating: "However I would respectfully suggest that the Court, in transmitting its decision, might strongly urge the Huntington Twp. board of school directors to satisfy the grievances of the petitioners by becoming a member of both the Upper Adams Joint Board and the North Adams Joint Board and assign pupils to each system in accordance with the natural geographical and sociological areas."

In his opinion, Judge W. C. Sheely noted that the pleadings in the court case were sent the state superintendent as required by Section 242 of the Public School code and that the code requires that in petitions for creation of a new school district, "the merits of the petition from an educational standpoint shall be passed upon by the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the petition shall not be granted unless approved by him." . . . Since the letter dated May 22 . . . from the Superintendent of Public Instruction . . . signifies his disapproval . . . the petition must be dismissed.

No Suggestion From Court

The court held it could not make the recommendation to Huntington Twp. — that it join both jointures — as suggested by Haas because "the making of such a recommendation is not properly a judicial function." After quoting various opinions of other courts concerning school matters, the Adams County court observed: "For the court to make the suggested recommendation or to express any views on the merits of the alleged grievances would be an unwarranted infringement on our part upon the proper function of another branch of the government."

The court action started when residents of the upper section of Huntington, to avoid sending their students to York Springs High School, asked to be set up as an independent school district. The petitioners claimed the ties for their section were with Biglerville.

BIBLE SCHOOL OPENS JUNE 15

The officers of the Emmitsburg Vacation Bible School met at the Lutheran Parish House recently and elected the Rev. Philip Bower to continue as director of the school. Miss Mary Long was selected to continue as secretary and treasurer. An assistant secretary-treasurer will be selected before the opening of the school.

The school will be held in the Lutheran Parish House, opening Monday, June 15. It will close Friday, June 26. There will be an installation service for officers and teachers in the Lutheran Church Sunday night, June 14, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Bower announced that at least six more teachers and helpers are needed. It was decided to make a special effort to enroll every child possible in the entire area and the active cooperation of all churches and the entire community is requested.

Firemen Called

The Vigilant Hose Co. of Emmitsburg was called to the home of John Willard, Hemler Rd., five miles south of Emmitsburg, Thursday morning, to extinguish a small blaze. Apparently the jet of the oil stove had been left open throughout the night, and when the stove was lit in the morning the rapid combustion due to the excess fuel caused soot in the chimney to ignite. There was no damage.

Those from Emmitsburg who attended the Frederick County Historical Society benefit card party at the Historical Society Home in Frederick on Wednesday were Miss Louise Sebald, Miss Julia H. Christie, Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald and Miss Betty Fitzgerald.

Memorial Service

Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Virbal visited in Emmitsburg Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Virbal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald. Mr. and Mrs. Verbal were enroute for a Memorial Day weekend to Duryea, Pa.

Services at Elias Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor, will be held Sunday at 10:30 a.m., with Sunday School at 9:15 a.m.

Memorial Day will be observed and claimed that it was easier for their students to attend the Biglerville High School than the York Springs High School. They also claimed they could receive better education at Biglerville.

Who Is This Couple?

Does anyone recognize these late residents of Adams County? Mrs. Robert H. Shriver, of Petrolia, R. I., a former resident of the county, has been going back through the old family album trying to connect pictures and names, in order to get the family tree in order. All have been identified but the couple shown in the accompanying picture. The name may be Shriver or it may be Range, Mrs. Shriver says, because the Ranges married into the Shrivers while the family resided in this section. Anyone recognizing the couple is asked to write to Mrs. Shriver at Petrolia.

Just Folks

THE NEW HOUSE
I passed a new built house today,
The last bright touch applied.
'Twas ready to display
And all was gay inside.

I knew that soon it would be shown
To people young and old.
And wondered who that house would own
When it was labeled "Sold."

New rooms upon the builder's plan
In measured feet appear,
But know their story no one can
Till after many a year.

It is a pleasing house, thought I,
But homes need tender care,
And love must last or those who buy
Won't find contentment there.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHEN DO WE FAIL?

When we fail, we fail as a person — no one else need be involved. The stars shine as usual. Birds nest and hatch their young. Flowers bud and bloom in isolated spots and scatter their perfume, through their beauty wilts away, unseen and unknown. We are an entity of our own.

We have heard people speak of one as a great person, which interpreted could mean much. One oblivious to the forces about him, and aware only of the responsibility to himself for his own salvation and happiness. How such a one radiates his self-command and power!

No one else makes us fail. We, as persons highly endowed, are the only ones concerned. All through life we remain largely alone. Emerson spoke of such a one as emphasizing greatness. And greatness is just as common among the unknown as among the known and acclaimed. We are not failures because we may lose what money we have, or other possessions. We are failures only when we surrender our holy inheritance of will to live and to be a somebody who is useful in the world.

The Salvation Army folks speak of a man who may be "down, but not out." As a person he may be a potential, through yet unpolished, agent from Heaven. Let us bear in mind the questioning God, as His final words may be "not hast thou won, but only hast thou striven?" In such an inquiry is spiritual significance.

As humans beings, we are self-armed, self-controlled, and self-reliant. We are of a piece. We have failure only within ourselves. We are a thing of dignity, if we brush that sense of failure from us. The story of Job in the Bible is an inspiring one. Boils and troubles could not kill his spirit! When we think we have failed, it may mean that we only have failed to sense our triumph! Many a human being has gone to his sleep in the earth not knowing that he had in life earned immortality!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "God's Presence" Protected, 1953, George Matthew Adams Service

A family gathering marked the golden anniversary of the marriage which took place on May 28, 1888, in the Shady Side Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Schaeffer.

For five years they spent summers here and wintered in Pittsburgh, but in 1936 they constructed a home near their swimming pool and tourist camp, where the couple is engaged in business with their children, Jack and Betty.

TAFT SPEECH CAUSES WORRY AMONG ALLIES ON U. S. POLICY

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Worried Allied diplomats wondered today whether the Republican administration may seriously consider radical changes in Far Eastern policies if Korean truce talks collapse.

Their concern stems from efforts to measure the ultimate impact on future decisions by President Eisenhower of ideas which Senate Majority Leader Taft put forth in a speech read for him at Cincinnati Tuesday night.

At Vancouver, B. C., Canadian External Affairs Minister Lester Pearson said if Taft's advice "became U. S. policy it would be deplorable and a terrible blow to the United Nations."

See Change Of Direction

Taft said if armistice negotiations fail the U. S. should tell England and other Allied nations "we are withdrawing from all further peace negotiations in Korea."

He also asserted the U. S. "might as well abandon any idea of working with the United Nations in the East and reserve to ourselves a completely free hand."

These and related proposals he made appeared to diplomats here to suggest a change of direction and a severing of ties between the U. S. and its allies which the Eisenhower administration has so far generally observed and protected.

Called "Harpoon"

The proposals come from a powerful figure in the governing party, moreover, at a time when truce negotiations are in what may prove to be the showdown stage and the need for new decisions may be almost at hand.

Taft's speech found no endorsement from his colleagues on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee who were willing to comment. One of them, Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said it "may have torpedoed chances for a truce in Korea . . . and it may even have thrown a harpoon into the Big Three talks in Bermuda."

President Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Churchill and the French Premier are scheduled to meet in Bermuda next month.

"Time To Keep Quiet"

Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said he was "not prepared to agree with Sen. Taft yet." Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said "this is such an important matter I'm not going to say anything."

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the foreign relations committee recalled that a Norwegian statesman said in a time of tension with Sweden 50 years ago that "now is the time to keep one's mouth shut." Wiley added he was making "no personal application" but had in mind "all of us."

The circus is sponsored by the Fairfield Lions Club and proceeds will go to its charities and activities fund.

"I don't think we can take the position that if a particular negotiation doesn't turn out well we should get out of the United Nations," said Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.).

Sen. Tobey (R-NH) and Sen.

Humphrey (D-Minn.), in speeches at Cincinnati Wednesday, reaffirmed their support of the U. N. and at a news conference, Humphrey called Taft's speech "very unfortunate."

GROGERS' GROUP MEETS IN JUNE

Recognition of the importance of the relationship between food distribution and farm industries will be one of the basic themes of the 54th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Grocers Association which is scheduled for June 14, 15 and 16. The grocery retailers group, which represents 8,000 individual food store operators, announced today through its executive secretary, William A. Hubbs Jr., that Pennsylvania's nine agricultural queens have accepted invitations to be guests at its meeting at Atlantic City's Ambassador Hotel. The queens will represent apple and cherry growers, potato farmers, maple sugar producers, livestock and poultry raisers.

"The Pennsylvania Grocers Association believes that a healthy economic condition among farm groups is essential to the general prosperity. In the specific instance of grocery retailing, the interdependence of food producers and distributive factors has a dual significance," Hubbs said. "Not only is

Dodgers Face 5-Game Holiday Series With Pirates. And May Be Leading Loop Sunday Night

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Flushed with gifts from an unexpected source, the Brooklyn Dodgers face a busy holiday weekend which may well lead them into first place in the National League.

At least the door will be wide open and the watch dogs will be otherwise engaged.

The Dodgers begin a five game set today with some of their very favorite playmates, the Pittsburgh Pirates. Their first division rivals will be scrapping among themselves.

Runners-Up Matched

The Dodgers have beaten Pittsburgh three straight this year and 19 out of 22 last year.

League leading Milwaukee tangles with second place St. Louis in three games starting today in St. Louis.

Philadelphia, a close fourth, opens a four game engagement with the fifth place New York Giants.

Since nobody is apt to come out unscathed from these dog eat dog encounters, Brooklyn should be sitting pretty by Sunday night.

Cards And Reds Tie

Yesterday, after leading almost all the way, the Giants gave Brooklyn the winning run in the 10th on a missed third strike, a fielder's choice, an intentional walk and a passed ball. Brooklyn won, 7-6.

The Dodgers now are in third place, a game and a half back of the first place Braves. Milwaukee was idle yesterday while the Cardinals were held to a 10-10 tie in 10 innings at Cincinnati. The game was called because St. Louis had to catch a train home.

In the American League yesterday the New York Yankees moved three games in front of the Chicago White Sox by whipping Washington, 7-2, while the White Sox took the day off. Philadelphia licked Boston, 6-1, and the St. Louis Browns won their second in a row from the Cleveland Indians, 7-5.

Fords Beats Senators

Whitey Ford of the Yankees extended his amazing record of never having lost as a starting pitcher as he set down the Senators on five hits. Ford, a 24-year-old left-hander, has been beaten only once in 14 decisions in the majors and that came in a relief role against Philadelphia late in the 1950 season. He has won four times this year.

Another long winning streak by a pitcher was broken in the Philadelphia-Boston game where the Athletics finally beat Mel Parnell two seasons. Parnell was leading the league this year with a 6-0 record.

In St. Louis veteran Bob Elliott drove in six runs with a bases-loaded homer and a single. The two hits ran his lifetime major league total to 1,998.

A Wild Affair

The Pittsburgh Pirates slammed 15 hits off the offerings of Jim Konstanty but the 36-year-old Philadelphia righthander stayed the distance to pick up his fourth victory.

The Cincinnati-St. Louis tie was a wild affair with the Redlegs scoring two runs in the eighth on Grady Hatton's pinch homer, two more in the ninth on a homer by Andy Seminick and a final pair in the 10th on a single with the bases loaded by Jim Greengrass. The game will be replayed from the start at some later date.

Perez To Battle Flanagan Tonight

NEW YORK—This is graduation night for Lulu Perez, 20-year-old ring scholar from Brooklyn, who meets seasoned Glen Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., in his first Madison Square Garden main event.

As Perez is expected to handle the wily Flanagan, veteran of 81 fights, the odds are 2½ to 1 in his favor. He will be meeting a cutie who knows many of Willie Pep's favorite tricks and has fought the best of them.

The 10-round featherweight match, topping a card of three 10-rounders will be carried on network radio (ABC) and television (NBC).

SAXTON BEATS JOE MICELI

DETROIT—“This beat him,” Johnny Saxton said, pounding his right wrist.

“And now I’m ready for any welterweight in the world—Davey, Turner and even Gavilan,” added the smooth, 22-year-old Negro.

Saxton had just outpointed Joe Miceli, a fellow New Yorker, in a 10-rounder at Olympia Stadium and was feeling in fine fettle Wednesday.

“Yes, sir,” said Saxton. “This right wrist of mine was what did it. Everything he’d throw that crazy left uppercut of his, I’d block it with my right wrist.”

Went Head Hunting

Saxton calmly warded them off as though he were pushing his way into a crowded subway train.

Then the unbeaten New Yorker opened up. Normally a body puncher, he went head hunting and the next few rounds had Miceli in trouble against the ropes. But GI Joe refused to go down.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—Arlie Green, 16½, Los Angeles, outpointed Esau Ferdinand, 16½, San Francisco, 10.

DETROIT—Carl Collins, 134, Baltimore, stopped Dave Rollins, 127½, Detroit, 5.

NEWARK, N. J.—Bobby Fenty, 135, New York, outpointed Jimmy Watkins, Jr., 138½, New London, Conn., 8.

KARACHI, Pakistan—Horace A. Hildreth, U. S. ambassador to Pakistan and former president of Bucknell University, left here Tuesday night on his way back to the United States.

Hildreth told reporters at the time of his departure he will continue his consultations with the State Department in Washington and also will attend commencement exercises at Bucknell in Lewisburg, Pa.

FINE PROPOSES NEW TAX PLAN; SLASHES BUDGET

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's lawmakers reacted coolly today to Gov. John S. Fine's suggestion for a hodge-podge tax package to balance the commonwealth's budget.

Both Republicans and Democrats viewed his suggested eight-point tax program, offered Wednesday in conjunction with 33 1/2 million dollars in budget cuts, as a new start to revive the discarded sales tax.

The governor omitted specific mention of the sales tax in a special message to the Legislature but insisted a broad-based levy is the only long-range solution to the state's financial woes.

Fine cut back to 120 millions his original demand for 157 millions in new taxes. He then offered the lawmakers their choice of levies from this package he estimated could yield 151 1/2 millions in the next two years:

$5 Personal Tax

A $5 per capita tax on all Pennsylvanians between 21 and 65 years of age (40 millions).

Ten per cent amusement tax (20 millions).

Five per cent hotel room occupancy tax (10 millions).

Five per cent luxury tax on jewelry, furs, toilet preparations, luggage, handbags and wallets (10 millions).

Five per cent tax on telephone and telegraph messages (16 millions).

Increasing the 4 cents a pack cigarette tax to 5 cents (22 millions).

Imposing a cent an ounce tax on smoking tobacco, and cigars at the rate of a cent for those costing four cents or less, two cents for those costing between five and 10 cents and three cents for those costing 11 cents or more (10 millions).

A 3 1/2 per cent tax on gas and electric bills (73 millions).

"All of these taxes are distasteful to me," Fine said in his personally-delivered special tax message. "I do not advocate any particular tax. I might be compelled to sign any or all of (them) to provide necessary funds for health, welfare, education and other services for our peoples."

Actress' Father Acquitted In Court

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Howard Sherwood Tierney, 58, father of movie actress Gene Tierney, convicted a Bucks County court jury Wednesday he shot and killed a neighbor's pony by accident.

Tierney, a New York insurance broker, was accused of wilfully shooting Mrs. Dorothy Martin's pet pony when the animal wandered into a wheat field on Tierney's 106 acre farm near this suburban Philadelphia community.

Tierney told a jury of 10 men and two women he only intended to frighten the animal off his property with two shots from a .22 calibre rifle. The jury acquitted Tierney after two hours deliberation.

Tierney was assessed 75 per cent of the trial costs. Mrs. Martin paid the rest.

THE WAY OF CHRISTIAN LOVE

I Corinthians 13
Key Verse: Faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love. I Corinthians 13:13

Reports came to Paul at Ephesus that all was not well in the church at Corinth. In fact the very life of the congregation was threatened by dissensions. He had labored there for a whole year and had great hopes for the future of this mission. When faithful helpers first brought reports of trouble Paul returned to Corinth but his visit was not successful. He had been defied and insulted. The church at Corinth is a fair example of what can and does occasionally happen in a modern congregation. But the Apostle was not to be denied. He wrote a letter.

In First Corinthians Paul discussed several of the things which disturbed the peace of the church. Members were slipping back into old pagan and immoral ways. He was very direct in his reproof. They were quarrelling about "spiritual gifts" — jealousy for a recognition of abilities they claimed to have. Paul employed his finest logic to show how all gifts and talents can be applied so that, "If one member is honored, all can rejoice together." Then he spoke of "a still more excellent way, and with that he introduced the Hymn of Love — the 13th chapter. It was as if Paul said to himself why all this reasoning. One thing is needed above all else and that is love.

So we have the great love-poem. It grew out of the intense concern, even anguish, that the Apostle had for the people who had been gathered into Christ's fold but were drifting back into their former ways. He practiced the love he so earnestly commended. In a later epistle (2 Cor. 2:4) he referred to the first: "I wrote you out of much affliction and anguish — to let you know the abundant love that I have for you." He wrote out of a heart overflowing with affection for those to whom he had been a pastor. He was aware of their weaknesses. He also knew of their abilities. They needed guidance and encouragement. Above all a different atmosphere was required in the congregation. Pride, selfishness, moral laxity and other evils poisoned the air of the church. The virtues that grace any wholesome society were largely lacking.

Paul knew that love was needed to purify the atmosphere — a love that was sincere and applied in all relationships. This prose-poem which Paul sent in his letter to the quarrelling Corinthians may be divided into three parts: The first three verses show the lack of moral and spiritual value of mere words, prophecy (that is preaching), faith, charity and even a martyr's death, when love is absent. Some very high abilities and deeds are brushed aside as "nothing" when not motivated by genuine love. In the final accounting before Christ there will be some surprises when evaluations are made according to Paul's inspired poem of love.

In verses 4-7 the Apostle analyzes love. It is a composite of all things' misfortunes included; such graces of character as patience and kindness; it is not jealous or rude, or boastful, or selfish or resentful; "love bears with faith and is ever hopeful."

In verses 8-13 Paul comes to a lofty climax. He writes about things we value — knowledge, prophecy and tongues. But all will cease or pass away. Love will endure: "Faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

There is a dynamic element in love. Love as demonstrated by the early Christians won its way in a society to which it had been a stranger. Powerful empires fell because of the lack of abiding love among men. An intensive campaign is now on for world domination. Communism will fail if the free world will care enough for humanity to apply in all our relationships the spirit of Paul's Hymn of Love.

KING MEMORIALS

Seven Stars - Gbg. 943-R-4

THE MOMENT OF ACHIEVEMENT

Four minutes to four by the Chapel clock. Four years of effort now crowned with success. This is the moment of achievement.

Three minutes to four. The illusion begins to fade. Here, outside the ivy-covered walls the future looms more important than the past.

Two minutes to four. A sense of fear. Can a diploma guarantee happiness through all the years to come?

One minute to four. Futility! Education can't insure happiness. Life is a succession of uncertainties.

Four solemn strokes of the Chapel clock. The Chapel clock! There is life's one Certainty... God! And with divine Love rewarding human faith, who need fear the uncertainties of life or doubt to find happiness under God.

Years of education are no substitute for minutes of spiritual searching. Diplomas are important, but the discovery of Faith is the real moment of achievement.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Charging Appeasement And Cellout, South Koreans Are Fighting Allied Truce Plan

SEOUL (AP) — Bristling with charges of Allied appeasement and cellout in Korea, the South Korean government has spelled out its opposition to the latest Allied truce proposal in a note to the United Nations Command.

Maj. Gen. Choi Duk Shin, South Korean truce delegate, left Seoul late Thursday to deliver the message to Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, Senior Allied negotiator, at Munsan.

Contents of the note were not made public. But a Republic of Korea spokesman described it as "very important." He said it gave detailed expression of the ROK government's recommendations, but was in no way an ultimatum.

Discloses Details
South Korea's foreign minister, Pyun Yung Tai, threatened to resign if his government approved the still-secret Allied proposal for breaking the prisoner of war deadlock submitted to the Reds Monday.

While never revealed officially, South Korean sources this week disclosed most features of the plan. Referring to two Red satellites — Poland and Czechoslovakia — nominated for a five-nation commission to handle prisoners who refuse to go home, Pyun said: "Our country will fight troops from such countries."

Negotiations Stalled
A few hours before delivery of the government note, nine ROK national assemblymen met for an hour with Harrison. An Allied spokesman said later they expressed "fears and aspirations of the South Korean people."

The assemblymen said they could not recognize India, which has backed the new plan and has been suggested to head the five-nation commission, as an "independent state."

One assemblyman said Harrison's only reply was an implication tion that the ROK views should be directed to higher levels. The truce negotiations themselves stood still.

Meet On Monday
The negotiators are scheduled to meet at Panmunjom Monday after a week-long recess. The Reds are expected to answer the U. N. plan then.

In another development, U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs called on South Korean President Syngman Rhee in Seoul for the second time since the Allies submitted their proposal to the Reds Monday. What went on was not divulged and a spokesman for Rhee would not confirm or deny a report that Briggs brought with him a message from Washington.

Behind the ROK opposition to the Allied truce plan is the ROK government's demand for unification with North Korea. Another objection stemmed from the Allied plan to give a five-member neutral nation commission custody of some 48,500 prisoners of war unwilling to return to Communist rule. These include 34,000 North Korean prisoners, whom the Rhee government wants released in South Korea immediately following a truce.

The South Koreans also object to possible use of Communist satellite troops to handle prisoners while their fate is decided.

IKE MENTIONS FARM HERE AT BELTSVILLE, MD.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower mentioned his own experiences as a farmer here in connection with a visit to the U. S. Department of Agriculture Experimental center at Beltsville, Md., Tuesday. Eisenhower was the first president to visit the nationally famous Beltsville experimental laboratories and farm.

While a scientist was explaining to the President how much artificial breeding cuts down the cost of investing cows and minimizes the hazards of raising cattle as well as providing for better stock, President Eisenhower cut in to agree that cattle raising is financially hazardous.

Speaking of his farm here, the President observed: "I had a heifer which my partner and I paid $3,500 for and she died." The partner was George E. Allen, with whom Eisenhower operates as Dega farm. Allen and Eisenhower's farm operations here are jointly managed by the two.

Dine On Modern Menu
The President brought an independent view to the danger of the 17-year locust, prevalent in this section and in Maryland. The Beltsville scientists held they do little damage to trees. The President said he wasn't worried about the trees: "But it's getting bad when trout are so full of locusts they won't bite."

The President was given a luncheon made up of the most modern foods:

Orange juice made from powder that may be stored without refrigeration; prime ribs of beef from a twin-calf experiment showing that young animals on reduced rations gain rapidly when put back on full feed and produce quality meat; baked ham from a new type hog with more lean meat and less fat; glazed sweet potatoes resistant to black rot; asparagus grown under improved insect-control methods; high-energy potato chip bars; Cheddar cheese made in half the time required by present methods; whey cheese spread made from waste products; chocolate candy they won't soften in hot weather; and milk with a low calorie content.

FLOOD CAUSES HEAVY LOSS IN NEW YORK TOWN

LACKAWANNA, N. Y. (AP) — Residents of this steel city began a mass cleanup Wednesday after the worst flood in the city's history drove more than 100 families from their homes and caused damage estimated as high as one million dollars.

The flood came after heavy rains caused Smokes Creek to overflow and back up sewers Tuesday.

8:50 a. m. The Queen joins the return procession, with 10,000 troops preceding her coach. The procession is two miles long and takes 45 minutes to pass a given point of the 5-mile, 250-yard route.
10:30 a. m. The Queen reaches Buckingham Palace.

11:15 a. m. The Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, from Buckingham Palace balcony, witness aerial parade by Royal Air Force.
3 p. m. The Queen broadcasts to the Commonwealth.

More than two inches of rain fell in 36 hours in the Buffalo suburb. Garbage collections were halted indefinitely because the incinerator plant was flooded. The 30,000 residents were asked to keep their garbage in covered cans until it could be collected.

4 Schools Close
About 1,500 pupils helped with the cleaning as four schools shut down.

Washed out families began moving back into their homes, praying against more rain that might send the Smokes rushing through the streets again.

Matthew Katora, commissioner of public works, said the damage—including cleanup costs—probably would run to at least one million dollars.

About 3,000 homes stood in the path of the rushing water. There were no reports that the huge Bethlehem Steel Corp. plant here was damaged.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Education Committee has approved a bill permitting children to leave school at the age of 14 to work in the homes or on the farms of their parents.
"The bill will be reported today—as amended," said Chairman W. Stuart Helm (R-Lancaster) after a committee meeting.

It is believed that the horse came comparatively late among domestic animals, the camel and the ass preceding it as transport animals.

TAFT AND IKE AVOID BREAK ON U. S. POLICY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) today avoided any party-splitting break in their relations despite some fundamental differences over U. S. policies in Korea and the Far East.

The White House took the initiative only a few hours after Eisenhower had said at a news conference that "No," he did not agree with Taft's assertion that the U. S. "might as well forget the United Nations as far as the Korean War is concerned."

Eisenhower aides called Taft's office to inquire about the health of the Senate Republican leader. They intimated the President planned to address a note of cheer to Taft, hospitalized in Cincinnati with an undiagnosed hip pain. Eisenhower had sent such a message when the senator was in Walter Reed Hospital here last week for a checkup.

Publicly At Odds

Taft was publicly silent about the President's disavowal of the Ohioan's proposal that the U. S. withdraw "from all further peace negotiations in Korea" if present truce talks fail. Aides said Taft would not comment for several days, if at all.

But Robert A. Taft Jr., the senator's son, noted in a telephone interview from Cincinnati that Taft had said in his Tuesday night speech he was giving only his personal views on the Far Eastern situation and had said these views were not intended "as any criticism of what is being done or not done."

The Eisenhower and Taft statements left the two most powerful men in the Republican party pub-

Lambast Reds Across Korea; No MIGs In Air

SEOUL (AP)—Scores of Allied fighter-bombers pounded Communist communication and supply lines across North Korea without opposition Wednesday as badly beaten Red MIG jets refused to fight.

Deadly swept-wing Sabre jets streaked through overcast skies hoping to fatten their bag of 51 MIGs shot down this month. Sabres destroyed 12 Red jets and damaged another without losing a plane in sky battles yesterday, the Air Force said.

Some MIGs ventured south of the Yalu River dividing Manchuria and Korea Wednesday, but none would fight.

Solid overcast covered MIG Alley in Northwest Korea between 10,000 and 20,000 feet. Red pilots usually avoid combat in overcast skies.

Only scattered patrol skirmishes were reported along the 155-mile battlefield. Carrier-based Navy planes attacked Red supply lines in the Wonsan area on the east coast of Korea Tuesday, the Navy said.

lily at odds not only on the U. N.'s future role in the Far East if truce talks fail but on the methods by which peace might be attained in that area.

"One Bite" as Nibbles

Taft has favored a "one-bite" approach to a Korean settlement, wrapping up also the problems of Formosa and Indochina in a single agreement.

Eisenhower told yesterday's news conference that objectives are not attained in one great sudden agreement that everybody sits down and signs. He said if the present U. N. truce offer is accepted by the Communists the Allies would be in a better position to go ahead with a just program in Korea than they are now.

Taft said in his Tuesday night speech any truce under present conditions is bound to be "extremely unsatisfactory" since it would divide Korea unilaterally and it might release a million Chinese soldiers to be used against Nationalist-held Formosa and French Indochina.

If the truce efforts fail, Taft proposed that the U. S. tell England and other allies that it is withdrawing from all further peace negotiations. He did not outline what further steps he would take.

"If you are going to go it alone one place," Eisenhower said, "you of course have to go it alone everywhere. . . . Our whole policy is based on this theory: No single nation can live alone in the world. We have to have friends."
